BananaToys.com Releases Summer 2006 Hot Toy List – Toys with Kid-A-Peel

BananaToys.com, known for its cool and hard-to-find radio-controlled toys and action figures, celebrates its 6th year anniversary by introducing its Summer 2006 Hot List of the top-selling toys with kid-a-peel.

Covina, CA (PRWEB) July 29, 2006 -- BananaToys.com, a popular online retailer of hard-to-find radio-controlled toys and action figures, today announced its Summer 2006 Hot List of the top-selling toys and collectibles that will surely keep kids busy for the rest of their summer vacation. The Hot List hopes to assist parents in selecting the most fun, exciting, and adventurous toys for their kids.

BananaToys.com prides itself on carrying only the highest quality products from well-known brands such as Hasbro®, Mattel®, Tyco R/C®, Star Wars®, Transformers®, among others. One of its major goals is to provide a family-focused, safe and enjoyable shopping experience with its easy-to-navigate kid-a-peel website. While maintaining its products at competitive prices, BananaToys.com continuously strives to provide a fast, friendly and personal customer service nationwide.

Outlined below are the detailed product descriptions for some of the hot items BananaToys.com recommends for the Summer of 2006:

Star Wars Mr. Potato Head: Artoo Potatoo™ by Hasbro®

The fun-loving spud comes outfitted as the illustrious Star Wars droid! Use your imagination to create all sorts of wacky looks and silly faces! This 4-inch potato body comes with attachable droid parts, Mr. Potato Head face and Princess Tater figure. Artoo-Potatoo is the heroic companion of Luke Frywalker. This feisty droid often finds himself in hot water, but always manages to save everyone's skin. Now, Artoo-Potatoo must help Princess Tater with an urgent mission: deliver the death spud plans to her friends in the rebellion!

Star Wars Transformers™ by Hasbro®

Combining the elements of Star Wars with the engineering of Transformers come Hasbro's Star Wars Transformers! Instead of robots from Cybertron changing to vehicles and animals, this time a vehicle from Star Wars changes in to a robotic version of a Star Wars character! Each figure also comes with a miniature pilot.

Transformers Alternators™ by Hasbro®

Like its name suggests, these Transformers Alternators are vehicles that quickly transform into robots. Each Alternators vehicle has rolling wheels, opening doors, rubber tires, moving seats and all sorts of special features to make it look like a collectible 1:24 scale car! Popular buys include: Swindle and Rollbar Jeep Wrangler, Ricochet Subaru Impreza WRX, Skids Scion xB, Sunstreaker Dodge Viper, and Battle Ravage Chevrolet Corvette.

Morphibians™ by Kid Galaxy®

From the depths of the sea, up come the Kid Galaxy Toys Morphibians - land and water fun all in one! The Morphibians are the powerful, 4-wheel drive remote control cars that come in different shapes and forms. This series includes Morphibian Gator, Morphibian Shark, Morphibian Dirt Frog, and Morphibian Cobra. These creatures can prowl, hop, and slither through ponds and pools. With a fully functional radio control, the Morphibians are ready to perform anywhere.

Tyco R/C® Terrain Twister™ by Mattel®

Winner of Family Fun Toy of the Year 2004, this Tyco radio-controlled vehicle can tackle any terrain. Featuring sleek pivoting pontoons with unique corkscrew treads, transmitter designed for easy maneuvering in all directions, and water tight aquatic driving ability, the vehicle is virtually unstoppable as it twists its way over grass, sand, pavement, water, and even snow.
